

My Rainbow Poem from Jesus

I've given you a promise with the Rainbow as a sign.
It lets you know my purposes from beginning of all time.
dark blue are the tears you've shed of repentance green is the life and breath I have given.
yellow's the sunshine to warm and to feed.
red is the blood that I shed just for thee.
deep purple declares my royal priesthood sky blue is my promise if only you would -
 hearken to me,
 be yielded to me,
 then I'll set you free
 to be holy to me.

There's a rainbow in my city, too,
To keep reminding me and you, blue is the river flowing freely for all green is the tree, full of fruit, standing tall yellow is my glory and warmth upon you red is the covering that I bought for you Purple, my child will be everywhere, Because you will reign and rule with me there.

By Christi ♥ Wildman
©11 - 1999

CHRISTI WILDMAN 2009